Program overview:

The main objective of forming and operating any business is to make profit. This enables the business to exist and to grow. A driver is employed to perform some specified duties that others cannot effectively and efficiently combine with their official duties.

This workshop on managing attitudinal change for improved productivity is designed to create awareness among drivers on the dangers of entrenched values and unethical behaviors that can be disastrous to organizations. It will expose drivers to how their services contribute to the productivity of the organization.

For whom:

All Company drivers, Dispatch riders and their supervisors

Learning objectives:

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- discuss the managerial functions of a driver;
- explain the operating mechanisms of their vehicles;
- imbibe good work ethics;
- prepare a maintenance program for their vehicles; and
- explain the role of the driver in increasing organizational productivity.
